COOKIE POLICY

This policy explains how AJR Facilities Consultancy Ltd uses cookies and similar technologies on its website. The company is operated by its sole director and has no employees. This policy should be read alongside the company's Privacy Policy.

What are cookies

Cookies are small text files placed on a device when a website is visited. They are widely used to make websites work, improve functionality and provide information to the website owner about how the site is used.

How this website uses cookies

The company's website may use cookies to enable core functionality, remember user preferences, and understand how visitors use the site so that it can be improved. Cookies are not used to identify individuals personally or to build marketing profiles.

Types of cookies used

Strictly necessary cookies: Required for the website to function correctly, such as enabling navigation and secure areas. The website cannot operate properly without these cookies, and they cannot be switched off.

Analytics cookies: Used to collect information about how visitors use the website, such as which pages are visited most often. This information is used only to improve how the website works and is generally collected anonymously.

Functionality cookies: Allow the website to remember choices made by a visitor, such as language or region, to provide a more personalised experience.

Third-party cookies: Where the website uses services provided by third parties, such as hosting or embedded content, those third parties may set their own cookies in accordance with their own privacy and cookie policies.

Managing cookies

Most web browsers allow control over cookies through browser settings. Cookies can typically be blocked or deleted, and browsers can be set to notify when a cookie is received. Restricting cookies may affect the functionality of this and other websites.

Consent

Where required by law, consent will be obtained before non-essential cookies are set on a visitor's device. Consent choices can be changed or withdrawn at any time through the cookie settings provided on the website or through browser controls.

Changes to this policy

This policy may be updated from time to time to reflect changes in the cookies used or for other operational, legal or regulatory reasons. Any updates will be published on this page.

Contact

Any questions about this policy or how cookies are used should be directed to the company using the contact details provided on its website.

Review and improvement

This policy will be reviewed at least annually, and sooner if there are significant changes to the website, the cookies used, or applicable legal requirements.
